

H. R. 140.

APRIL 21, 1820.

Read twice, and committed to a Committee of the whole House, to-morrow.

A BILL

For the relief of Ambrose Vasse.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That 3 the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized 4 to pay to Ambrose Vasse, of the town of Alexandria, in the 5 District of Columbia, the sum of thirteen thousand three hun-6 dred and seventy-eight dollars and sixty-three cents, being the 7 sum awarded to be paid him for the cargo of the ship Olive 8 Branch, by the Board of Commissioners under the seventh 9 article of the treaty of the twentieth of November, one thou-10 sand seven hundred and ninety-four, between the United 11 States and Great Britain: Provided, There is as much money 12 remaining of the fund which, by law, was appropriated for 13 the payment of the awards under the said seventh article of 14 the said treaty; or to pay such part thereof, as the fund afore-15 said, remaining in the Treasury, will enable.
